Critical Thinking for Investigators

March 6-7, 2023 | Remote Delivery | 1000 - 1800 EST (1500 - 2300 UTC) | TII & CPIO

In an age of overwhelming misinformation, disinformation and propaganda, critical thinking skills are more essential than ever to determine fact-from-fiction and make the best possible decisions.

While we are called upon to use our critical and logical thinking skills on a daily basis, most of us are simply not good at it; we are all subject to a range of biases and “thinking mistakes” that we may not be aware of.

What we think of as “common sense” is just not enough.

Developed with over two decades of training delivery and development experience in both the investigative and operational intelligence spheres, this comprehensive two-day course will provide the essential skills required to accurately assess our expanding information landscape, get closer to the truth, and produce high-quality, accurate, intelligence products.

With broadcast-quality, remote delivery and utilizing an engaging, experiential learning approach, attendees will learn how to deconstruct problems, ask the right questions, challenge assumptions, examine different viewpoints with greater clarity, and make better decisions more efficiently.

This sought-after course will also introduce select case studies that highlight both successes and failures in real-world investigations, research projects, and intelligence operations to reinforce core training concepts.

ABOUT TII

We are thought leaders who, since 1997, have been developing and delivering internationally acclaimed training products specific to the needs of our clients, in both public and private sectors.

As experts in Open Source Intelligence (OSINT), we are a multi-disciplinary, international team of seasoned professionals with extensive experience in front-line intelligence and investigative operations.

We are committed to the principles of knowledge, integrity, and excellence in everything we do. We are passionate and innovative educators who deliver highly-acclaimed, world-class training programs that provide direct and tangible benefit to our clients across their entire organization.

From law enforcement and the intelligence community, to military and government agencies within the Five Eyes and beyond, from financial institutions and manufacturers, to petrochemical and pharmaceutical corporations within the Fortune 500, we listen to our clients and provide innovative training solutions specific to their needs.

As professional facilitators, we provide outstanding customer experiences that inspire, enlighten, and stimulate. We foster creative solutions for complex problems, while working within defined policy and legislative frameworks.

For over two decades, we have delivered training to tens of thousands of students in various formats, on every major continent. Our continued international reach exposes us to a myriad of practices, and as we impart knowledge, we also learn from our clients and use what we learn to continually innovate and improve.

We are passionate about educating, innovating, and helping our clients reach new levels of success, and most importantly, we believe in using what we know to make the world a safer place.

 In a world where uncertainty is sometimes the only certainty, and accelerating change is the norm, we recognize that success depends not just on technical best practices and the application of best-of-breed products, superior critical thinking skills, in addition to effective logical and creative thought processes, are essential to achieve maximum benefit and avoid failure.

Utilizing proven adult learning principles, and with an approach that is always flexible, our curricula incorporates not just best practices, but key behavioural science elements essential for the success of our clients.
